Pibroch

Published by Rim of the World High School

Lake Arrowhead, California

"But pleasures are like poppies spread,
You seize the flower, its bloom is shed;
Or like the snow falls in the river--
A moment white, then melts forever."

Burns

"If, in the paths of the world,
Stones might have wounded thy feet,
Toil or dejection have tried
Thy spirit, of that we saw
Nothing--to us thou wast still
Cheerful, and helpful, and firm!
Therefore to thee it was given
Many to save with thyself."

From "Rugby Chapel"
By Matthew Arnold

We dedicate this 1958 edition of PIBROCH to Mrs. Rebecca Nesmith, our Dean of Women, librarian, and senior English teacher. In the years she has spent at Rim of the World High School, Mrs. Nesmith has become so much a part of the school and of our hearts that we cannot even imagine what next year will be like without her. It is our most sincere hope that, after the work on her doctorate is completed, she will return to us again.
